

STUDENT MEMBER OUTCOMES

Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda, Inc. (FBLA-PBL) is the largest career student business organization in the world. FBLA-PBL inspires and prepares students to become community-minded business leaders in a global society through relevant career preparation and leadership experiences.

Want join or start a chapter? www.fbla-pbl.org

 More FBLA members carry an "A" grade point average than the national student average

FBLA member participation outranks the national average in these high school courses

 15.2% of FBLA members say the organization has a positive impact on their academic performance

 41.6% of FBLA members say they are first-generation college students

Of the business educators surveyed:

-  93.2% believe FBLA prepares students for college & career
-  61.2% work with industry leaders by having them speak to students in the classroom

When choosing a college/university, FBLA members look for a school that provides:

- Affordability
- Career Preparation
- Social Environment
- Academic Environment
- Academic Strength
- Opportunities

FBLA members say involvement helps them develop these critical skills

