

2024 Collegiate SLC: Know Before You Go

We are looking forward to seeing you at the Collegiate FBLA State Leadership Conference on Saturday, April 20th at The University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, Upper Lodge Building: 1420 Austin Bluffs Parkway, Colorado Springs, CO 80918

Dress Code

Refer to page 4 of the Call to Conference for the Collegiate SLC Dress Code. Students and advisers should be in business professional attire. All conference attendees will be provided with a conference name badge and lanyard during check-in.

Parking

Refer to the Campus and Parking Map on the Collegiate SLC event page: www.coloradofbla.org/collegiate-slc. The closest parking garage to the Upper Lodge is called the Gateway Garage.

Schedule

7:30 am	Registration & Breakfast
8:30 am	Introductions & Keynote Speaker
9:30 am	Competitions Begin
11:30 pm	Lunch on Your Own
12:30 pm	Workshops in Columbine Hall
2:30 pm	Awards Session

During registration, each chapter adviser will need to turn in a completed Certification Form (page 8 of the Call to Conference).

Competitions

Chapter advisers will be given a schedule of competitive events to share with students. Students should check-in at least 5-minutes before their assigned time.

Lunch

Chapters will be responsible for finding lunch on their own.

Closing Awards Session

We will recognize the top four winners in each event on stage during the Awards Ceremony. All students recognized on stage automatically qualify for the National Leadership Conference in Orlando (this is a change from last year).

National Leadership Conference

The Colorado Collegiate NLC Call to Conference has been posted at the bottom of the SLC event page, along with the NLC Intent Form. Anyone interested in competing at the National Conference must complete the Intent Form by May 1st.

Contact Information

Molly Davis, molly.davis@cccs.edu, 303.968.5613 (work cell)