Opening Session

The Colorado FBLA State Officers will have a brief opening session before turning the day over to Junior Achievement for the Junior Achievement It's My Business program.

Competitions

Testing Events: advisers can login to Blue Panda on Monday, February 19th and download testing tickets. All tests must be done by March 1st.

Presentation Events: If your students are in an on-site competition, please ask them to go to the competitive events area 5 minutes before their scheduled presentation or prep time. Please review the schedule sent in a separate spreadsheet for your students' times.

Lunch

Firehouse Subs will be served for lunch. No other food will be provided, so you may want to bring snacks for the trip to and from the Middle School Division State Leadership Conference.

Closing Awards Session

The top 3 in each competition will be recognized with medals after the conclusion of Junior Achievement's It's My Future program. The top four winners in each national competition qualify for National Leadership Conference in Orlando (this is a change from last year).
