National

Policy and Procedures Manual

- Competitors should be familiar with the Competitive Events Policy & Procedures Manual, found on the Competitive Events page on www.fbla.org.

Eligibility

- FBLA membership dues are paid by 11:59 pm Eastern Time on March 1 of the current school year.
- Members may compete in an event at NLC more than once if they have not previously placed in the top ten of that event at NLC. If a member places in the top ten of an event at NLC, they are no longer eligible to compete in that event.
- Members must be registered for the NLC and pay the national conference registration fee in order to participate in competitive events.
- Members must stay in an official FBLA hotel in order to compete.
- Each state may submit four entries.
- Each competitor can only compete in one individual/team event and one chapter event (Annual Chapter Activities Presentation, Community Service Presentation).
- If competitors are late for a presentation time, they will be allowed to compete until such time that results are finalized, or the accommodation would impact the fairness and integrity of the event. Competitive events start in the morning before the Opening Session of NLC.
- All members of a team must consist of individuals from the same chapter.

2023-24 Competitive Events Guidelines

Critical Thinking

- The number of competitors will determine the number of winners. The maximum number of winners for each competitive event is 10.

Event Administration

- This event has two parts: preliminary presentation and final presentation
- Preliminary Interactive Role Play Presentation
 - Preparation Time: 15 minutes
 - Presentation Time: 7 minutes (one-minute warning)
 - Question & Answer: None
 - The role play will be a problem or scenario. The role play will be given to the competitors at the beginning of their assigned preparation time.
 - Two notecards will be provided to each competitor and may be used during event preparation and role play presentation. Information may be written on both sides of the notecards. Notecards will be collected following the role play.
 - No additional reference materials or props or visuals are allowed.
 - If participating as a team, all team members are expected to actively participate in the role play.
 - Role plays are interactive presentations; the judges may ask questions throughout the presentation.
 - Role play presentations are not open to conference attendees.
 - Competition ethics demand that competitors do not discuss or reveal the role play until the event has ended.
- Final Interactive Role Play Presentation
 - The above presentation guidelines will be in effect for the final presentation.
 - An equal number of competitors/teams from each section in the preliminary round will advance to the final round. When there are more than five sections of preliminary presentations for an event, two competitors/teams from each section will advance to the final round.

Scoring

- The preliminary role play presentation score will determine the finalists.
- The final role play presentation score will determine the winners.
- Judges must break ties. All judges' decisions are final.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

- FBLA meets the criteria specified in the Americans with Disabilities Act for all competitors with accommodations submitted through the conference registration system by the registration deadline.

Recording of Presentations

- No unauthorized audio or video recording devices will be allowed in any competitive event.
- Competitors in the events should be aware FBLA reserves the right to record any presentation for use in study or training materials.
